Hi Shauni,

Here is the email I got from the Adirondack Foundation concerning the grant we won. However, the amount is actually $11,500. Is this what you are looking for, or is there something else I can provide?

Dear Chris,

Congratulations! Adirondack Foundation is pleased to award a Generous Acts grant for Tools to Succeed for ALL Students in their Educational Pathways in the amount of $10,000.00. Your work plays a vital role in strengthening our communities, and we are honored to support your efforts. We look forward to seeing the positive impact this grant will make possible.

Grant Distribution & Reporting

A grant check will be mailed within the next few weeks. As part of this grant, we will ask you to submit a follow-up report on or before 01/19/2026 23:59 EST, and we will send you a friendly reminder two weeks in advance.

Flexibility in Grant Use

We recognize that shifts in federal funding and other external factors may impact some organizations, requiring adjustments to the purpose or activities outlined in their grant applications. Our goal is to remain flexible in supporting your mission and objectives. If your organization has experienced or anticipates such changes, please email me at leslee.mounger@adkfoundation.org with a brief note explaining your situation in relation to your grant submission, and we will provide guidance on next steps.

Publicizing Your Grant

Join us in publicizing your grant this week! We have assembled resources that may be helpful to you here: bit.ly/GranteeResourcesGAF. If you would like to share your news on social media right away and don't have a photo to use, you can use the attached graphic. Tag us on Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram and X at @adkfound and using #adkfoundation.

Please contact me if you have any questions. We look forward to hearing about your progress and celebrating your impact!
